TEAS! TEAS!

ALLIS & HOWES, Evansville, Ia.
AGENTS OF THE NEW YORK
CANTON TEA COMPANY.
The Oldest Tea Establishment in America

THE Canton Tea Company has been popularly known for many years. This is the largest and oldest Tea Establishment in America. The public have had full proof of their integrity and responsibility. But such has been the great and pressing demand for their Tea, that they have been obliged to enlarge, to a great extent, their two principal establishments in New York, viz:

125 Chatham & 163 Greenwich Streets. They moreover possess facilities, in relation to the Tea trade, in a very abundant degree, and doubtless superior to any other Tea Concern in America. Their scrupulous regard to all principles that tend to elevate the character of a large house, is well understood, and has already procured them a connection, probably larger than all other Tea establishments united, and they consequently are determined to sell tea purer, more fragrant, and perfect for the price, in the aggregate, than any house in the world.

China excepted. They most zealously invite the attention of the inhabitants of this city and surrounding country to their agency—Messrs. Allis & Howes, where the following assortments are always on hand; and they feel no hesitation in stating, that wherever a single trial is made, a very decided preference is given to the celebrated Teas of the Canton Tea Company.

Readers make the experiment.

TAKE NOTICE.—The Canton Tea Company are the exclusive vendors of the super Black Tea called "Howqua's Mixture." They introduced it in America in 1840—and every other person or house professing to sell the same at all—much less at a low price—deceives the unwary, as the public themselves will perceive, by comparing the spurious with the genuine "Howqua" vendible by the Canton Tea Company.

Every package (in addition to its containing full weight, independent of the wrapper), bear the stamp of neatness and elegance, and the Teas therein are so thoroughly secured from light and air, that the quality and power will remain unimpaired in the climate. (May 16) ALLIS & HOWES, Agents.

A Card—Magnolia Restaurant!

My patrons and at their suggestion, the Eagle Restaurant will in future be known by the name of "Magnolia Restaurant." Also, through the columns of your popular morning daily, I wish to return my most cordial, warm and sincere thanks to the citizens of this city, for the heretofore very liberal patronage extended me, and having thoroughly refuted my Restaurant Exchange, Ice Cream and Lemonade, (each distinct and separate) and having secured the services of a French cook, the good life, epicures, citizens and strangers of our growing city, may depend upon having their various tastes and wants supplied in the most princely and magnificent manner, and not to be surpassed in the city, every thing will be served as near as our market will admit in the Northern, Southern or Southern Magnolia style. Come along gents, French, upper ten, citizens and strangers, whether as a party, or as a single individual, would say if you belong to the land boat, aristocratic, ruffian boom of our city, or, whether you move or walk in more praiseworthy but humbler spheres of life of the "Moochin Boys," all are welcome at the Magnolia Restaurant.

Remember every exertion shall be used to please, and prices will be in accordance and keeping with the times.
